TRAGEDY AT ARLINGTON.

Charles J. Tawater Shot Twice and Seriously Wounded.

Arlington, Texas, Nov. 9.—Charles J. Tawater was shot twice and very seriously wounded here this afternoon. Following the shooting Will H. Rose surrendered to the officers and was later released on bond. The shooting took place about 4 o'clock on Center street, near the Citizens' National Bank building. According to several persons who claimed to be eye-witnesses, the men were observed talking together just before the shooting, but neither seemed to be excited. Four shots were fired and Tawater received two wounds. The most serious was from a bullet which entered the corner of his left eye and went through the base of his nose. Another bullet went through his arm. Tawater was hastily removed to his residence, where at a late hour this evening he was reported to be suffering greatly. Fears are entertained that he will not recover.

Beyond stating that he acted in self-defense, Rose declined to make any statement except that the trouble grew out of business matters and some recent litigation.

He was very much affected, and with feeling declared it was the most deplorable thing that he had ever experienced, and said he hoped Tawater was not seriously hurt.

A Methodist Minister Recommends Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

"I have used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy for several years for diarrhoea. I consider it the best remedy I have ever tried for that trouble. I bought a bottle of it a few days ago from our druggist, Mr. R. R. Brooks. I shall ever be glad to speak a word in its praise when I have the opportunity."—Rev. J. D. Knapp, pastor M. E. church, Miles Grove, Pa. Sold by Bratton Drug Co.

CAMPAIGN FOR MISSIONS

Two Thousand Delegates Take Part In the Big Laymen's Missionary Movement Convention.

(Herald Special.)

Washington, D. C., Nov. 11.—Two thousand delegates from one hundred of the leading churches in the national capital are taking part in the big convention of the laymen's missionary movement, which held the first of its three days' sessions today. The list of speakers is headed by President Taft, and among other men of note who are to be heard are Rear Admiral A. T. Mahan, former Secretary of State John W. Foster, Robert E. Speer, secretary of the Presbyterian board of foreign missions; John R. Mott, general secretary of the World's Student Federation; Rev. Arthur S. Lloyd, bishop coadjutor of Virginia, and J. A. McDonald, editor of the Toronto Globe.

The convention is one of a series to be held during the coming winter and spring in more than seventy of the leading cities of the United States, with the purpose of inspiring members of the different churches to active missionary work. The movement is entirely of an interdenominational character.

ECZEMA CURABLE!

PROOF NOW AT 25 CENTS! Try Oil of Wintergreen Compound. Itch is Instantly Relieved.

Let Us Launder YOUR CURTAINS.

Your curtains will need laundering this fall. The usage they have received and the dust they have absorbed during the summer makes them unfit to hang the entire winter. We wash them clean, without damaging them; we starch them just stiff enough to drape right and hold their shape; and we dry them perfectly square. Send your curtains to us, and you'll be pleasantly surprised by their appearance when we return them. Do it today.
